IS THIS YOU?

T.T.07

Imagine your SURPRISE.
You're living a happy life.
But then you turn on the TV.
And you find out you're dying.

WILL YOU BE PREPARED WHEN TRUMP INFORMS YOU OF YOUR DEATH?

CONSIDER THE FOLLOWING EXAMPLE:

The phone rings. You answer. A hollow voice is on the other side. Your name, for this example, is Barbara.

"Barbara!" The familiar voice tells you: "It's time!" The radio suddenly snaps on with music from the 1980s. The television explodes with a pop of smoke. On the screen you see a sped-up montage of every decision Donald Trump makes in office. You scream in agony and run out of the room. But the television follows you. You have no choice.

Proper Embalming

If Donald Trump ran a morgue, let me tell you folks, people would be DEAD. There'd be no guesswork in it. And if they weren't dead we'd MAKE THEM DEAD. Have you seen those other morgues? Seriously, someone should do something about it, because it's very troubling.

YOU KNOW YOU'RE ABOUT TO DIE. You look over at the TV screen. There's Donald, laughing, and he's looking right at you. His eyes get wider and wider, and you feel the gravity of the room shift, as he pulls you in. His mouth slowly opens. You're being pulled into his jaw, and down his throat. Soon your soul is in his gut. It's crowded. But listen, Free Caskets!
